The New York Tribune says Mr Cleveland has announced the following as his policy in making appointments:
The next administration will be a busiess men's administration. By that I nean that business men are to have the preference in the appointments. Of urse the business men will be Demo-ats. But in making appointments I shall consider the business records of the applicants. That will have greater weight with me than the indorsement of political organizations. I dorsement of political organizations. I shall appoint successful business men as heads of the departments, and I shall expect this policy to be carried out in all departments of the Government. This is a time when business men are needed. The questions before the American people are questions that can best be solved by business men. Reforms in the Tariff, economy in the Government, will be easily account plain, practical, honest are selected.

A well known New York Democra says everybody was as much surprised when Cleveland announced his determion to go to the funeral of ex-Presiden Hayes as they were at his Tariff and money messages and his Murphy interview. But he makes no mistakes. He does a thing that everybody at once pronounces a mistake and wonder at his But presently it appears that e no mistake; that he did the right thing as time develops. Whether it is far-sighted wisdom or prescience or merely blundering good luck, I don't know; but its so. He should have the credit of the first supposition, and the thing has happened so often that there has grown up a feeling of considerable confidence in the wisdom of any course he takes, in at least a political way.

ONE OF THE FINEST FINES

The Grand Jury Indicts Newport's Demo eratic Chief of Police.

The most sensational return made by a Campbell county Grand Jury for a long time was reported yesterday morning, when the Big Twelve coincided with Mayor Ablering, Hepublican, in his claim that Chief Cottingham was a sustper in holding possession of the Chief of Police office. This matter causad a decided sensation and was the absorbing topic of conversation on the streets. The indictiment reads as follows:

Thomas H. Cottingham, usurpation of office, by knowingly holding and pretending to secte the duties, authority and office of Chief Police of the city of Newport, after the term pointed to or was by law entitled to hold said office of Chief of Police of the city of Newport, at the continuous and legally expired, and office being one established by the laws of the commonwealth of Kentucky.

THE remains of Breckinridge Burbank of Henderson, who died some weeks ago in China, are daily expected to arrive at San Francisco en route to his old home for interment. Some two years ago the deceased went to the Celestial land, partly in behalf of the American merchant marine. He was a grandson of the late David R. Burbank, a tobacco millionaire, and although young was rated very high both commercially and socially.
